

NATIONALITIES SERVICE CENTER (NSC)

GLOBAL TASTES 2019

EVENT SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

THURSDAY, APRIL 4TH 2019

VIP 6-7PM | GENERAL EVENT 7-10PM

WHYY

150 N. 6TH STREET

PHILADELPHIA, PA 19106

Dear Friend,

We are thrilled to announce that Nationalities Service Center will once again host Global Tastes, an evening of wonderful food and fun in celebration and support of Philadelphia's immigrants and refugees, on Thursday, April 4, 2019. This year's Global Tastes event will be held in Center City Philadelphia at WHYY, featuring global cuisine from a diverse array of local restaurants. This is truly a celebration of a city so diverse, you can taste it!

We are delighted to announce that Joe Hohenstein, newly elected State Representative of PA's 177th District in Philadelphia, will receive the Nationalities Service Award to honor his advocacy and continuous fight for immigrants and refugees in Philadelphia. We will also honor Villanova University with the Margaret Harris Award to celebrate their demonstrated commitment to immigrants and refugees, especially through their Nursing and Law programs.

Since 1921, Nationalities Service Center (NSC) has prepared and empowered immigrants and refugees in the Philadelphia region through the delivery of a wide range of vital services, including legal protections, community integration, access to health and wellness services, and opportunities to achieve English language proficiency. Your company's support will enable NSC to continue to serve as Philadelphia's leading immigrant and refugee service organization empowering individuals to build a self-sustaining and dignified future. Details regarding the sponsorship opportunities and benefits are enclosed. Thank you for your support of NSC and Global Tastes, and we look forward to seeing you on April 4th!

Sincerely,

HONOREES

GLOBAL TASTES 2019

JOE HOHENSTEIN

NATIONALITIES SERVICE AWARD

VILLANOVA UNIVERSITY

MARGARET HARRIS AWARD

Joe Hohenstein, newly elected State Representative of PA's 177th District in Philadelphia, is this year's Nationalities Service Award honoree. This award is presented each year to an immigrant or immigrant justice champion that demonstrates a commitment to assisting new Americans settled in Philadelphia. Joe is nationally renowned for his specialization in complex litigation before federal and immigration courts, and has won numerous precedential cases in the Third Circuit. He has been practicing immigration law for over 20 years, most recently Of Counsel at Landau, Hess, Simon & Choi, and early in his career served six years as an attorney at NSC. Joe is a respected mentor for NSC attorneys and many others in our field. He is an extraordinary and indefatigable champion for immigrants and refugees.

Villanova University is this year's Margaret Harris Award honoree, which is given to those who are on the front lines of immigrant and refugee assistance and advocacy. As an education leader in law, nursing and ministry, Villanova has supported NSC and worked closely with our Survivor Services, Health & Wellness and Legal services. Villanova has provided on-site health screening during legal intakes and partnerships with their Law Institute to Address Commercial Sexual Exploitation and Farmworker Legal Aid Clinic. It is rare to work with an educational partner on so many service front lines. We value our partnership with Villanova and want to celebrate their advocacy, education, and service activities around refugees and immigrants.
